THE COLLEGE OF ST. FRANCIS XAVIER

GRAMMAR SCHOOL

53 West 15th St., New York City.

The Grammar School of St. Francis Xavier's College, founded in 1855 and under the care of the Jesuit Fathers, is a training school for younger students from the age of nine to fifteen.

The course of study extends over four years and corresponds to that prescribed for the eight grades of the ordinary grammar school. There are four classes : First, Second, Third and Fourth Grammar.

The requirements for admission into the Fourth Class are the same as for promotion from the Primary to the Grammar Department of the public schools.

The successful completion of the Grammar Course entitles a pupil to entrance into the High School Department.

The general disciplinary regulations are the same as in the other departments of the College.

As in the High School Department, here also military drill is of obligation, and all the pupils are required to wear a uniform. This uniform may be worn at all times, but is the rule only on drill days.
